Family:

Todd R Thumma and wife Sarah M. Thumma chose our love of life together March of 2004. Uniting our families is important to both of us and will always be part of our hearts. As a proud born American citizen of Carlisle, Pennsylvania (Todd R Thumma) with loving, caring, and strong giving parents who provided the guidance that hard working individuals shall succeed in and provide for a family. Being there for family members is very important to me. My life has proven to continue and become the individual from youth to adult to husband, father and grandparent (maybe a great grandparent) is one to be grateful for.

Hobbies/Interest:

Spending time with family and friends, watching football (LSU), walking the beaches and personal time with my wife.

Working on and finishing projects with family and others from building a deck, installing pool for grandkids to fixing up small items around the house.
